Will Clements is a Vancouver-based singer, educator, recording artist, and published arranger. With three albums to his credit, he has been named by CBC Music as a "fantastic and easy voice...". Some of his musical highlights include performing at the World Symposium on Choral Music in Istanbul with the Vancouver Youth Choir (2023), being a finalist with the Niagara Jazz Festival Youth Contest (2022), a performance residency as part of the Vancouver International Children's Festival (2021), an Outstanding Ensemble Award for leading and arranging at the Vocal Impact Festival (2020), a full scholarship towards the Drayton Harbour Festival Camp in Washington (2016), and performing at the Quarter Festival in New Orleans (2016). Recipient of the UBC Greg Quan Prize in Music (2021), as well as an Outstanding Practicum Award, Will continues to arrange music for ensembles in his spare time. He has served as a clinician for several secondary music programs, and is currently the director of choirs and general music at Argyle Secondary in Vancouver.

Carrie Tennant is the Artistic Director of the Vancouver Youth Choir. Founded by Carrie in 2013, VYC is now recognized as among Canada's finest youth choirs, having won first prize in its category in the 2017 National Competition for Canadian Amateur Choirs. VYC has been featured on CBC radio, at the Push International Performing Arts Festival, numerous Cantando Festivals, and at the International Choral Festival in Missoula, Montana. In 2019 Carrie and the choir brought the house down at the ACDA Nationals in Kansas City. In 2023 the choir was one of ten choirs selected (world-wide) to be featured at the World Choral Cymposium in Istanbul.

Carrie is the curator for her "Vancouver Youth Choir Series" (Cypress Choral Music)
