Original Version:

As I walked in Beth-le-hem A-bout the break of day
 Un-der-neath a ro-sy sky The lit-tle houses lay — And much I mar-velled that the town, Veiled in morn-ing mist Should seem as walled in chry-so-phase And roofed with a-me-ri-thyst —
 2. As I walked in Beth-le-hem, (And there I walked a-lone) Such

Second Verse:

As I walked in Beth-le-hem A-bout the break of day
 Un-der-neath a ro-sy sky The lit-tle houses lay — And much I mar-velled that the town, Veiled in morn-ing mist Should seem as walled in chry-so-phase And roofed with a-me-ri-thyst —
 2. As I walked in Beth-le-hem, (And there I walked a-lone) Such glad-ness filled my beat-ing heart As I had nev-er known.

Broad-er seemed the nar-row streets As bright-er was the day— I heard the bells of heav'n ring out From not so far a-way—
