

2

Words by
NORAH HOLLAND

The Piper Wind

A three-part song for ladies' voices (Unaccompanied)

Music by
W. H. ANDERSON

Tempo moderato

mf

SUP. I. The Pi - per Wind goes straying In-to the morning, With mf mp

SUP. II

mf mp Al

CONT.

mf mp Al

Tempo moderato

mf (Acc. for rehearsal only.)

fern-seed in his pocket — And laughter in his eyes; — And the swift clouds break and

And the swift clouds break and

And the swift clouds break and

p

fol-low His mag-ic mel - o - dies. Al

mf

fol-low His mag-ic mel - o - dies. The Pi-per Wind goes roaming O'er

p

fol-low His mag-ic mel - o - dies. Al

He

p up - land glade and plain. He whispers to the sun - shine He whistles through the air. He

He

p espressivo dreams a - mong the pine — a tempo f And p espressivo dreams a - mong the pine trees, — a tempo f And wakes — And p espressivo dreams a - mong the pine trees, — a tempo f And p espressivo laughs — and laughs a - gain. — Ah

laughs — a - gain. — Ah

laughs — and laughs a - gain. — Ah

W.M.3008

p Little slower than tempo primo poco rall.

p mp

poco rall.

The Pi - per Wind goes homing A - on the sun-set

p Little slower than tempo primo

poco rall.

p

mp

poco rall.

The Pi - per Wind goes homing A - on the sun-set

pensively

And our hearts are

pensively

And our hearts are

pensively

skies, With fern-seed in his pocket And laughter in his eyes; And our hearts are

dim. rall.

fain to fol-low His mag-ic mel-o-dies.

dim. rall.

fain to fol-low His mag-ic mel-o-dies.

dim. rall.

fain to fol-low His mag-ic mel-o-dies.

dim e rall.