

The Ecstatic

Words by
C. DAY LEWIS †

BERNARD NAYLOR

$\text{♩} = 80$

f Lark, — sky-lark, — p spill-ing your rubbed and round

Peb-bles of sound in air's still lake, — Whose wid - ening cir - cles fill the noon; yet Is known so small be - side the sun: — rit.

Meno Be strong your fer - vent soar - ing, your sky - ward air! —

f sost.

PERUSAL SCORE ONLY - PLEASE DO NOT COPY

† From A Time to Dance and other Poems, by permission of the Author and The Hogarth Press Ltd., London, England

Copyright 1949 by WESTERN MUSIC COMPANY LTD., Toronto - Winnipeg - Vancouver

W.M. 7008-3

Trem - ble there, — a nerve — of song! Float up there, where voice — and wing — are one, A sing - ing star, a note — of light! — accel.

tempo I. Buoyed, em - bayed in hea - ven's noon - wide reach - es — For soon light's tide will turn — oh

ten.

stay! — Cease . not till day streams to the

Smorz. sin al Fine

west, — on down — That est - ua ry drop —

— down to peace. —