The stupid school they sent me to Dismissed me for a dunce One simple song was all I knew And that I learnt at once: I love my love so tenderly Because I know my love loves me!	Ils m'envoient à l'école où je n'ai rien compris Qu'un' petit' chansonnette que Le maître' m'a appris. Je l'aime tant mon ami, C'est là mon doux plaisir.
My father heard me sing my song And to mama he said; "My faith! The child has not been long! 'Tis time that she was wed !" I love my love so tenderly Because I know my love loves me!	Un soir que j'étais chante, Mon père m'entendit; "Que dites-vous, ma fille,- Il vous faut un mari?" Je l'aime tant mon ami, C'est là mon doux plaisir.
So I have trimmed my gown to-day With ribbons of the best, For when the bride is young and gay She must go gaily drest! I love my love so tenderly Because I know my love loves me!	Quand on les marie jeune il faut bien les vêtir, Il faut qu'on leur achète Robe de satin gris. Je l'aime tant mon ami, C'est là mon doux plaisir.
Adieu, Papa! Adieu, Mama! Adieu, my playmates all! For now I am a wedding cake My home and husband call! I love my love so tenderly Because I know my love loves me!	"Adieu, père, adieu, mère, Adieu, tous mes amis! Je m'en vais en ménage Avec mon cher mari. Je l'aime tant mon ami, C'est là mon doux plaisir.
'Tis I shall set the soup to boil, And I will bake the bread; Then I will take my broom and sweep the room, And I will make my husband's bed! I love my love so tenderly Because I know my love loves me!	Je bouillerais la soupe, Mélèrai la poule au gril, Je balayerai la place Et je ferai mon lit? Je l'aime tant mon ami, C'est là mon doux plaisir.
