Linda Fletcher

Linda Fletcher, a dedicated RCM certified voice teacher is actively involved in the music community as a teacher, composer, singer, adjudicator, clinician, accompanist and music director. She has been organist and choir director at Walton Memorial United Church for over 40 years.

Her students have won many provincial and international awards including numerous RCM gold medals. Several now perform professionally on international stages and as composers and recording artists.

Linda received the Lifetime Achievement in the Arts award, in recognition of her many contributions to the teaching of music, the ORMTA Special Teacher award and in 2016 was the inaugural recipient of the RCM Teacher of Distinction award.

Linda was part of the creative team for the 2012 RCM voice series, a compiler and editor for the 2019 series, and she wrote new vocal arrangements for the 2025 RCM Voice series. Many of her compositions and arrangements are included in the Voice Series 2025 syllabus. Her vocal and choral compositions are performed internationally. Linda has adjudicated major music festivals across Canada and is co-founder and president of the Oakville Vocal Arts Festival. Linda and husband John are blessed with four children and five grandchildren who also share her love of music.
