Macdonald has a varied musical background that includes experience as a performer, conductor, educator, and composer. He is currently a member of the faculty at the Selkirk College Contemporary Music and Technology Program in Nelson, BC where he heads the composition department. Don's composition credits include commissioned classical works, arrangements and compositions for CD recordings and scores for award winning film and television. He has received two Genie nominations and 5 Leo nominations for his work in Canadian film and his score for "Fido" won the prize for best soundtrack at the Gerardmer Film Festival in France.

Malca Litovitz (1952-2005) was an award-winning Canadian poet as well as being an editor, critic, performer, mentor, and full-time teacher of English literature and creative writing for 25 years. Her poem, "Winter Sun", appears in one of her books, To Light, To Water (Lugus Publications, 1998), which won the National Jewish Poetry Book Award, 2000 (Canada). An endowment for the Malca Litovitz Prize for Creative Writing has been established at Seneca College - Toronto.
