Erica Phare-Bergh obtained her M. Mus. in Choral Conducting from McGill University (1994). A native of Montreal,

Phare-Bergh formerly conducted the Vanier College Choirs, FACE Young Singers, and the McGill Conservatory Choirs. Her choral ensembles have performed in festivals both nationally and internationally. In Calgary, she has directed the William Aberhart High School Choirs, Westwinds Green Choir, the Rocky Mountain College Choirs, the Savridi Singers and currently teaches music with the Calgary Board of Education. She has been on many juries including ChoralFest North, was the guest conductor for the 10th Anniversary of the CBC-McGill Youth Gala and a presenter at MCA in 2014.

In 2008, she spearheaded the Montreal première of Oratorio Terezin, a large-scale work involving 270 performers at Place-des-Arts. She moved from Montreal to Cochrane, Alberta in 2010. She and her husband, Rick, have a company called, A Song with Every Story, which incorporates both original songs and classical music into children's stories.
