Jean McKen completed her undergraduate studies in music education at the University of Western Ontario and then received her Master's of Science in Music Technology from Indiana University in Indianapolis. She studied trumpet with Chase Sanborn and William Sperandei, as well as jazz saxophone with Frank Falco in Toronto. In tandem with her busy teaching career in Ontario, Jean has composed music for small ensembles, jazz combos, pop radio and more. In 2009, she won the Canadian Music Educators Association 50th Anniversary Competition with her submission 'I Am Song, Je Suis Chanson'. Most recently, she has created two award winning online interactive products that engage students in the classroom: Breezin' Thru Theory and Breezin' Thru Com.
