Gail Poulsen is a violinist and songwriter from beautiful Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario. Gail studied violin performance at The Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto. Her teacher, Kathy Rapoport encouraged and sustained Gail's love of composition and Celtic music. In 2008, Gail began composing music for her church, Jubilee CRC. This congregation has many wonderful professional musicians whose voices have helped to inspire Gail's compositions. Some of those songs have been published in hymnals, won major competitions, and are used to advertise Re-frame Media's Kid's Corner. Her compositions have been performed by the Niagara Symphony, Niagara Youth Orchestra, Chorus Niagara, Avanti Chamber Choir, Young Singers of Niagara, and many churches.

In 2015, Gail produced the CD, Songs of Jubilee. This album features songs written by Gail and co-lyricist, Linda Lensink.
