Squires, long-time professor, mentor, worship curator, and composer, is an Associate Professor of Music in the School of the Arts, Media + Culture at Trinity Western University in Langley BC, Canada. David holds performance and composition degrees from University of Western Ontario and University of Toronto, and a Ph.D. (Composition) from SUNY at Buffalo. David is also a student of Celtic spirituality, and has twice spent time on the island of Iona in Scotland's Inner Hebrides, whose Celtic Christian roots go back to the sixth century. He writes chamber, choral, and orchestral music for amateurs, students and professional musicians, and has contributed much music for use in church worship settings. His music has been performed across Canada and the US; Dr. Joel Tranquilla and the TWU Choirs have toured with his music to Hong Kong, Japan, and Taiwan, and will premiere his recently commissioned sacred oratorio Gardens in spring 2022. An Associate Composer of the Canadian Music Centre, David can be contacted at david.squires@twu.ca, and his music found at www.davidsquires.ca and on YouTube and Soundcloud. 07/08/21
