Luke 2:29;   Herr, nun läst du, deinen Diener in Frieden fahren, wie du ge sagt hast.
Lord, now let your servant depart in peace, according to your word.

Born in Montréal, William Kraushaar is a classically-trained film score composer with a strong fondness for vocal music. Self-taught bass singer, he has earned himself a privileged position in a number of prestigious canadian vocal ensembles, namely the Studio de Musique Ancienne de Montréal (SMAM), l'Ensemble Caprice, l'Harmonie des Saisons, the Theater of Early Music (Dan Taylor) and many more, as well as being part of Québec's top professional choirs. As a composer, he was awarded twice by the SOCAN Foundation and his music has been played, among others, by the Quebec Symphony Orchestra, Voces Boreales, L'Ensemble vocal Art-Québec, The Choir of St-Andrew/St-Paul and the National Youth Choir of Canada.
